Solarity hires VP of Retail Delivery

Yakima, Washington (October 1, 2015)— Solarity Credit Union has hired Doug Stark as their Vice President of Retail Delivery.

Stark has over twenty-three years of sales experience and thirteen years of banking experience. He spent twelve years as the VP Territory Manager at Sterling Savings Bank where he presided over twenty-one separate branches. Stark also has experience in commercial lending and human resources, working for Bank of the West and Kelly Services. Stark received his bachelor's degree in Financial Services from the University of Nevada, Las Vegas.

Stark is a proven sales coach with extensive leadership experience. He understands what is needed to streamline, organize and unify branch environments. Stark is focused on establishing consistency between Solarity branches in order to increase the member experience. His work experience and education gives him the tools necessary to benefit Solarity in this new role.

Solarity Credit Union is excited to welcome Doug Stark to their team. His hiring is another example of how Solarity is working to provide members with the best financial experience possible. Solarity Credit Union and Doug Stark are committed to making positive things happen for their members and the community.
