

NEWS RELEASE

October 5, 2015

Contact: Celisa Hopkins, Development Director, 509-248-5065

Cowiche Canyon Conservancy's Fall Colors Walks
For Immediate Release

Experience the gorgeous colors of fall in the Yakima Valley with Cowiche Canyon Conservancy's annual Fall Colors Walks. The walks will take place Saturday, October 24th starting at 10 am at Snow Mountain Ranch. CCC's docents will offer walks and hikes of varying lengths. There is no charge to participate.

Groups will start from the parking lot at Snow Mountain Ranch located at 2024 Cowiche Mill Road, just west of Cowiche Creek Nursery. Meet at the check-in station where volunteers will be available to assist with trail selection. The walks are family friendly and geared to all ages and abilities, from short ½ mile flat trail walks, to the 6 mile Cowiche Mountain Trail hike up to the top. Trails have been developed from old farm and game trails and are not paved. Walkers should come prepared with layers of clothing for variable weather, sunscreen, sturdy shoes, water and a camera.

For more information, please email info@cowichecanyon.org or call (509) 248-5065.