“Claws for Paws” Crab Feed Fundraiser

Presented by Akland Pump & Irrigation

YAKIMA, WA – The Yakima Humane Society is hosting its’ annual “Claws for Paws” Crab Feed on Saturday, February 4th at the Harman Senior Center in Yakima.

The fundraising event will include an all you can eat feast of fresh Dungeness crab, baked potatoes with all the fixings and coleslaw. Enjoy an evening full of great food & drink, music and dancing all while supporting the great programs we have at the shelter. Opporutities for great prizes in the Balloon Pop and delectable desserts in the Dessert Frenzy are also on the list of festivities.

“We create a feast featuring delicious freshly caught crab and then add music, games of chance, beer, wine cocktails and dancing to round out the evening for our guests”, reports Mike Morrisette, Development Manager for the Yakima Humane Society.

Presented by Akland Pump & Irrigation, the event seeks to raise money to support the homeless cats and dogs at the Yakima Humane Society. “With the snow and frigid conditions we are facing this winter, the need for community support to care for homeless cats and dogs is greater than ever,” stated Mr. Morrisette.
