DONATION BENEFITS MADISON HOUSE COMMUNITY YOUTH CENTER
CALCOE Federal Credit Union Has Raised Over $3,369 in Donations

YAKIMA, WA – CALCOE Federal Credit Union has raised over $3,370 for Madison House Youth Community Center, a program of Yakima Union Gospel Mission, with the annual “Skip-A-Pay for a worthy cause!” campaign. The campaign allows participating members to skip a loan payment for a minimal fee which was split with the Youth Community Center. On January 19, 2017 CALCOE Marketing Director met with Tony Baker, Executive Director of Madison House, along with Madison House staff and kids to present the donation check.

Madison House was chosen benefactor of the campaign due to the similarities in vision of helping people. CALCOE’s mantra is to improve members’ lives by promoting thrift and providing affordable access to credit. Madison House aims to broaden the horizons of kids located in the neighborhood once termed “The Hole”.

“Madison House provides a priceless service for the kids they serve. CALCOE is thrilled in supporting their efforts with our Skip-A-Pay campaign donation.” stated Ryanne Nesary, Marketing Director.

About CALCOE Federal Credit Union

Originally established by several employees of the Cascade Lumber Mill in 1937, CALCOE opened the Credit Union membership to serve all of Yakima County in 2004. CALCOE's membership has steadily grown to over 3,500 active members and $27 million in asset size. CALCOE's mantra is to improve members' lives by promoting thrift and providing affordable access to credit. In doing so, the Credit Union offers "Credit Builder" auto loans, little to no cost checking accounts and other essential financial services.
