

3240 Fort Road • Toppenish, WA 98948
(509) 865-8500

Date: March 24, 2017

Contact: David Mance, Media Relations Coordinator
(509) 969-6084 or mance_d@heritage.edu.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Heritage University Career Fair 2017 to Introduce Job Seekers to Area Employers

Toppenish, Wash. – Yakima Valley job seekers will be able to connect with employers during the Heritage University Career Fair 2017 on March 30, 2017. The Career Fair is free and open to the public.

Representatives from a wide range of companies will be available to share the career opportunities their firms have to offer. These companies include:

Catholic Charities of Yakima
College Success Foundation
Comprehensive Healthcare
Eastern Washington University School of Social Work
Heritage University
Highland School District
Inspire Development Centers
ITAM Central Washington University
Plateau Remediation Company
Selah School District
University of Washington School of Public Health
USDA Rural Development
Virginia Mason Memorial Hospital
Wapato School District
Warden School District
Washington Beef
Washington Fruit
Washington State Department of Health Services
Washington State Legislative Intern Program
WorkSource of Yakima County
Yakama Forest Products
Yakima Co. Department of Corrections
Yakima Valley Farmworkers Clinic

The HU Career Fair can also help employers learn more about opportunities to host interns and work with the university's academic programs.

The Career Fair 2017 will be held on Thursday, March 30 from 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. in Smith Family Hall, which is located in the Arts and Science Center on Heritage University's main campus in Toppenish.

For more information, contact Mercedes Herrera at (509) 865-0701 or Herrera_M@heritage.edu.

#

Heritage University is a non-profit, independent, regionally accredited institution of higher education offering undergraduate and graduate education across the state of Washington. Visit our website, www.heritage.edu.