

GOVERNOR'S SUMMIT ON CAREER CONNECTED LEARNING

Business and community leaders will learn about career-connected learning successes, identify new skills, find additional resources, and develop the capacity to solve workforce problems.

Wednesday, May 31, 2017 | 10 am to 1:30 pm

This workforce development workshop is being hosted locally by:

WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY
EXTENSION

2403 S. 18th Street,
Union Gap, WA 98903

Free event, includes lunch and beverages

Register Here: www.washingtonstem.org/GovernorsSummit

Questions? Contact Alison White, (509) 707-8066; alison.white@wsu.edu

Agenda includes a live webinar link to the Central Summit:

- Martin Simon Associate Director, National Governors Association
- John Aultman, Senior Policy Advisory, Governor's Office
- Eleni Papadakis, Executive Director, Workforce Board
- Chris Reykdal, Washington State Superintendent of Public Instruction
- Brad Smith, President and Chief Legal Officer, Microsoft
- Honorable Governor Jay Inslee

Featuring a short video of best practices from the Learning Labs in Washington

Followed by local discussions about:

Career-connected assets, gaps, and determining local action steps and priorities
Policy recommendations that fit in your community needs