Solarity and MEMBERS Financial Services host Social Security and Retirement Seminar!

Yakima, WA (March 26, 2015) – Solarity Credit Union and MEMBERS Financial Services will partner to provide an educational seminar titled “Know the Rules of the Road to Help Maximize Your Benefits”. The seminar will be Tuesday, April 28th at 6:00 p.m. at the Harman Center on 101 N 65th Ave in Yakima. The seminar is a no-cost, no-obligation event hosted by Suzi Williams, a MEMBERS Financial Representative.

During this seminar, participants will learn strategies to know when and how they should begin taking their social security benefits. Participants will learn answers to the following questions:

- What are the rules for receiving social security benefits?
- What are the possible routes to take to maximize benefits?
- How can I develop a retirement income plan?

Solarity and MEMBERS have partnered for many years to provide the communities they serve with financial education. Solarity has educated hundreds of members of our community through seminars, online resources, in-branch handouts, and newsletters. By offering this seminar Solarity demonstrates how they understand their target markets’ financial situation, anticipate their needs, and guide them through complex financial decisions better than any other financial provider.

For more information or to reserve your place, call 509.972.5472 or go to the Solarity website at solaritycu.org to register online.
