

For Immediate Release

Contact: Pam Bright

Phone: (509) 945-7490

email: Marv_Pam@msn.com

Website: <http://www.sort4thecause.com/index.html>

Sort-4-the-Cause

Raises Record Amount for Local Valley Charities!

[Union Gap, WA – June 29, 2015] Sort-4-the-Cause will present proceeds from their fifth annual “2-Man Ranch Sorting Event and Auction Fun’d-raiser.” The event will be hosted on July 2nd at 6:30 p.m. at the Union Gap Cabela’s with special Celebrity Class rider and store manager, Curtis Frisbie. Beneficiaries include; Children’s Wishes & Dreams, Wellness House and Washington Hematology-Oncology.

The annual 2-Man Sorting event was held in Sunnyside’s Speck Arena on June 20 & 21, 2015. “Since its inception, Sort-4-the-Cause has donated $105,000. Last year beneficiaries received a total of $36,000 and this year we have raised considerably more.” said Shellie Speck, board member of the not-for-profit.

Sort-4-the-Cause gives back to our local community through financial assistance, and helps build awareness and prevention of some of life’s most difficult circumstances. Their mission is to provide some JOY, COMFORT, ASSISTANCE, and SMILES to local individuals and their families whose lives have been impacted by cancer or other life-disrupting illness.

To find out more about Sort-for-the-Cause and celebrate the support of three local charities, join us at Cabela’s on July 2nd at 6:30 p.m. or tune in to KXDD for live coverage with Celebrity Class rider, Charlie Brooks and “see what a few cowgirls can accomplish when they set their minds to it!”

###

Media Personnel are encouraged to contact Sort-4-the-Cause:

For interviews, more information about this year’s event, beneficiaries or Sort-4-the-Cause, please contact Pam Bright at 509-945-7490, or go to our website www.sort4thecause.com