CENTRAL WASHINGTON STATE FAIR SPONSORS HELP FAIRGOERS SAVE MONEY ON ADMISSION AND RIDES

Fairgoers who are looking for ways to save money on admission and rides at this year's Central Washington State Fair have even more ways to save this year. From one dollar admission and free parking, to free admission with a food donation, to other special deals, there are several chances to enjoy this year's Fair for not a whole lot of money.

The Fair opens at noon on Friday with a special promotion offering free parking and admission for only $1, until 4 p.m.

Monday, September 25 is Franz Bread "Pay-One-Price" Day at the Fair. With an empty Franz Bread sack with a neon Fair sticker and $27, fairgoers get into the Fair and unlimited carnival rides from noon until closing.

Tuesday, September 26 is Senior, Military and Veteran's Day at the Fair. $8.00 gate admission all day for seniors 65 and older, as well as members of the military and veterans.

Wednesday is Pepsi's Free Day at the Fair offering free admission to anyone who brings three or more non-perishable food items for donation to Operation Harvest. The offer is good from noon to 4 p.m.

September 28 is Pizza Hut's $3 Thursday. Parking and gate admission is $3 from noon to 4 p.m. Food vendors are also offering food bites for $3 during the promotion times. A receipt from Pizza Hut is needed to redeem the $3 parking and admission.

This year's Central Washington State Fair runs from September 22-October 1 in Yakima.
