Washington’s Paid Family and Medical Leave Program

Paid Family and Medical Leave is a statewide insurance program to care for yourself or your family in life’s most trying times. It is a statewide insurance program that will be funded by premiums paid by both employees and many employers.

What is covered?

- Your own medical condition
- Bonding with a child (birth, foster or adoption)
- Caring for family members
- Certain military-related events

How do I become eligible for benefits?

You become eligible once you have worked 820 hours for a Washington-based employer during the previous year. You can apply for benefits starting Jan. 2020.

What is my weekly benefit?

You are entitled up to 12 weeks of wage replacement with a weekly minimum of $100 and a weekly maximum of $1000, adjusted annually. Your exact benefit is determined by your earned wages, the state median income, and other factors.

Is my job protected while I take leave?

Employees covered by the state program are entitled to job restoration when returning from leave if they:

- Have worked for that employer for 12 months or more.
- Have worked at least 1250 hours for that employer in the past 12 months.

How much will it cost?

If your annual salary is $50,000, you will pay about $2.40 per week. The premium is 0.4% of an employee's paycheck and is shared by the employee and employer. Premium assessment will begin Jan. 1, 2019.

Employee: 37%
Employer: 63%
