Yakima County Commission Candidate Forum Coming Soon

YAKIMA, Washington- Today the Central Washington Home Builders Association announced a community candidate forum to be held September 21 at the Yakima Convention Center (10 N 8th St, Yakima, WA) from 6:00-7:00 PM. Presented together with co-sponsors the Yakima Association of Realtors® and the Greater Yakima Chamber of Commerce, the forum will focus on issues facing the housing and business communities in Yakima County.

Candidates LaDon Linde and Autumn Torres will be asked a series of questions prepared by the community groups along with questions submitted by the audience. Admission is free but seating is limited, the public is encouraged to register as soon as possible by visiting cwhba.org.

When asked about the forum, leaders from co-sponsor organizations had this to say:

“This is a really great opportunity for anyone who wants to be an informed voter in November.”
– Tim Lovelass, President, Central Washington Home Builders Association

“We’re looking forward to a robust discussion of the county issues that impact Realtors® like operations of the Planning and Code Enforcement departments, as well as how the county handles water rights.”- Felip Holbrook, Government Affairs Chair and board member, Yakima Association of Realtors®

“Never has the need to have excellent candidates serving our County been greater, it’s an important responsibility for each citizen to educate themselves and their vote!”- Verlynn Best, President & CEO, Greater Yakima Chamber of Commerce
